Thoughts For Thanksgiving

Looking for something for which to be thankful? Be thankful: 1. For a warless Thanksgiving Day and for the prosperity that envelopes the land.

2. For family and friends who are living, who will be at home or who are safe in other places.

3. For the memories of family members and friends who have been here in other years, and whose character have left a greater appreciation of finer things;

4. For rights as citizens of a free land, coupled with a prayer that the rights be protected by realization of responsibilities.

5. For the good things inherited from the toil and sacrifices of others who have been.

6. For the hope of a future in which achievements can be made and goals reached.

7. For God.
